SUMMARY

The bill amends the definition of "harassment" in the protection from harassment laws to limit qualifying damage to property to damage to business property. This amendment removes that limitation and amends the definition to include damage to personal property only.

The bill requires that, except in a narrow category of situations, a person seeking a protection from harassment order must first seek a cease harassment notice under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 506-A. This amendment expands that list of

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT

1 situations in which a notice under Title 17-A, section 506-A is not required to include
2 cases related to allegations of domestic violence, violence against a dating partner, sexual
3 assault and stalking. These are facts already identified by the court as important in 4 hearing complaints seeking protection from harassment orders.
