19 SUMMARY

The Maine Revised Statutes, Title 11, section 3-1118, subsection (1) in Article 3-A of the Uniform Commercial Code, which governs negotiable instruments, provides for a 6-year statute of limitations for enforcement of negotiable instruments. In 2004, the Maine Supreme Judicial Court sitting as the Law Court held in Fleet National Bank v. Liberty, 2004 ME 36, 845 A.2d 1183, that Title 11, section 3-1118, subsection (1) did not repeal the 20-year statute of limitations for some types of instruments in Title 14, section 751, either expressly or by implication. This bill provides that the 6-year statute of limitations in Title 11, section 3-1118, subsection (1) applies to all negotiable instruments, notwithstanding the 20-year statute of limitations for some types of instruments in Title 14, section 751.

This bill also provides that the 6-year statute of limitations does not apply to certain negotiable instruments until 90 days after the legislation takes effect. It requires the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation, Bureau of Financial Institutions and Bureau of Consumer Credit Protection to give written notice to all financial institutions, mortgage servicers and debt collectors regulated by or registered with them and to other entities and agencies that have interests in loans that may be affected by this legislation.
