9 10	COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "" to H.P. 1038, L.D. 1613, "An Act to Prohibit Profiling and to Strengthen Civil Rights in Maine"
11	Amend the bill in Part B by striking out all of section 2 and inserting the following:
12	'Sec. B-2. 5 MRSA §4751, sub-§3 is enacted to read:
13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26	3. Profiling. "Profiling" means the consideration of or reliance on, to any degree, actual or perceived race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental disability, religion, ancestry or national origin, age or familial status in deciding which persons to subject to a traffic or pedestrian stop or in deciding the scope or substance of law enforcement activities following a traffic or pedestrian stop. "Profiling" does not mean consideration of or reliance on characteristics provided in a specific suspect description. For purposes of this subsection, "activities following a traffic or pedestrian stop" include, but are not limited to, asking questions of a person, frisking a person, conducting consensual and nonconsensual searches of a person or property, seizing of property, requiring vehicle occupants to exit a vehicle during a traffic stop, issuing a citation and making an arrest.'
26 27 28 29 30	'Violations of this section are not enforceable under chapter 337-B but may form the basis of disciplinary proceedings by the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to suspend or to revoke any certification issued by the board pursuant to Title 25, section 2806-A, subsection 5, paragraph J or to take other action the board determines to be appropriate pursuant to Title 25, section 2806-A, subsection 6.'

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT

Information collected. Beginning July 1, 2023 2024, a law enforcement agency shall record and retain the following information regarding traffic infractions occurring in this State:

- A. The number of persons stopped for traffic infractions;
- 5 B. Characteristics of race, color, ethnicity, gender and age of each person described in 6 paragraph A. The identification of such characteristics must be based on the 7 observation and perception of the law enforcement officer responsible for reporting the 8 stop. The person stopped may not be required to provide the information;
 - C. The nature of each alleged traffic infraction that resulted in a stop;
- 10D. Whether a warning or citation was issued, an arrest was made or a search was11conducted as a result of each stop for a traffic infraction; and
- E. Any additional information the law enforcement agency determines appropriate. The additional information may not include any other personally identifiable information about a person stopped for a traffic infraction such as the person's driver's license number, name or address.'
- 16 Amend the bill in Part C in section 3 in the first line (page 2, line 24 in L.D.) by striking 17 out the following: "2023" and inserting the following: '2022'
- 18 Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section19 number to read consecutively.

SUMMARY

21 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, replaces the definition of "profiling" in the bill. Under the amendment, "profiling" is defined to mean considering 22 or relying, to any degree, on a person's actual or perceived race, color, sex, sexual 23 orientation, gender identity, physical or mental disability, religion, ancestry or national 24 25 origin, age or familial status in deciding whether to subject that person to a traffic or pedestrian stop and in deciding on the scope or substance of law enforcement activities 26 "Profiling" does not mean consideration or reliance on 27 following such a stop. 28 characteristics provided in a specific suspect description. The amendment also clarifies 29 that, if a law enforcement agency or officer engages in profiling, the law enforcement 30 agency or officer may be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy. 31

Part C of the bill changes from January 1, 2023 to January 1, 2024 the date by which the Attorney General must adopt rules for the recording, retention and reporting of information regarding persons stopped for traffic infractions. The amendment also changes from July 1, 2023 to July 1, 2024 the date on which law enforcement agencies are required to begin recording, retaining and reporting specific information regarding traffic infractions in accordance with those rules. Finally, the amendment makes Part C of the bill retroactive to December 31, 2022.
