COMMITTEE AMENDMENT

1 Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section 2 number to read consecutively.

3 SUMMARY

4 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, replaces the bill. The 5 amendment provides that a person that violates the prohibition in the bill on the sale or 6 transfer of a firearm to a prohibited person commits a civil violation for which a fine of 7 $1,000 may be adjudged, except that a person who violates the prohibition after having 8 been adjudicated as having committed one or more previous violations of the prohibition
9 commits a Class D crime. It also provides that it is an affirmative defense to a prosecution
10 for a violation of the prohibition that the person sold or transferred the firearm to another 11 person because the person was compelled by the other person or by a different person to 12 do so under threat of imminent risk to the person's health or safety or otherwise. It also 13 provides technical clarifications to the language in the bill regarding the prohibition on the 14 sale or transfer of a firearm to a prohibited person.
