

Ophelia Hu Kinney
Scarborough
LD 3

Our job is to be neighbors to one another. This is a particularly cruel time of year for families and individuals to find themselves without the amenities we all deserve as basic human rights: protection from the elements, a home...

As a devout Christian, I implore you during this high holiday season for many faiths to do what many of our religious traditions ask us to do: to extend compassion without inquiring whether or not another family deserves the comforts we enjoy.