

Karen Anderson
Fort Kent
LD 3

My husband and I are both public workers and with gas and oil and electricity being unbelievably high, even we struggle sometimes to put oil in our tank! So if we're both working and have to think twice about how much oil we should buy, imagine the elderly or people on disability having to make this same decision. These utility prices and FOOD prices are ridiculously and incredibly high. This bill needs to pass and then some! Thank you for your time listening