

Samuel Sherry
Rental Housing Alliance of Southern Maine
LD 45

In brief, over the course of thirty years of practice in Maine I have come to conclude that Maine judges do a good job judging.

LD 45 proposes to change the current law and practice -- under which judges decide what happened, based on evidence -- and simply tell them what to find.

I have a few examples to discuss, and hope to be able to do so.