

Margo Donnis

LD 405

I approve these tighter penalties for a false reporting of a school attack that results in a lockdown. I was so shocked last November when the schools were locked down in 10 Maine communities. Some students were texting "I love you" to their parents, as they were not sure they would survive. We need to heavily punish anyone who calls in these hoaxes. We need to support our students and families in any way we can.