I will write more when/if needed to expand on what I can

I believe parole should come back because this is my 1st time in Jail/Prison. I never thought about how people were treated in Maine Prison. I can say after 2 years it is bad. The degrading rules and when most of the cops/cos talk to you is with a power trip a harassing voice, speaking down to us. Yes sometimes needs to be done. ~~But with~~ So the idea is to make the inmates mad and want to get back at the cops talking down, or being a punk cop with the pettice rules. Take your hat off, tuck in your shirt, bang on your door at 6 and 9 pm for count. can't go to bed before 9, have to wake up at 5:45 am for nothing really.

They say education, and college classes there is none that mean anything. Nothing to help you when you get out, nothing that I see can help.

This place is about punishment an that's it.

I know everyone says their innocent but I was really given the shaft to. I was wrong but what I did does not justify taken my whole life away, family away. An makes my time here a lot harder.

parole would be good for the Jobs most these people could set.

Better help with putting family back together.

Insted of having no hope at all is here a MSP.

MSP is makes me the worst version of myself, too hate Maine an the people that work in law enforcement.

I don't have any answers but I do see people need to be usefull with better family adatined. Not siting here for 8, 10, 15, 20 years with no hope but being treated worse than a dog, an it being pushed that your better off dead
