

I think parole should be brought back because there are plenty of people here who have served 20+ years and are completely reformed. It seems almost criminal to keep a bunch of harmless old men locked up when they are no longer a danger to society.