

My Name is: Thomas Monat

I would have to say I'm 100% for Parole in Maine. I'm on my last year of a 10 year sentence for Robbing a Bank. IF there was parole, for instance, I wouldn't have missed my Dad's Death, and more recent, my 22 year old son's death as well... I think there should be parole on an individual bases, like most everything in life. IF you EARN it, and Deserve IT. Then you get the chance. IF not, you don't. Just like probation, you do what you have to do, or you go back to prison... So like I said, "I'm for Parole, IF you Deserve it."
