

Cynthia Anderson
Belfast
LD 586

I support LD586

All aquaculture is not alike-- some forms can cause major environmental damage; other forms can actually improve the environment.

I routinely read about environmental disasters at aquaculture installations. We can not expect the aquaculture industry to regulate itself.

I would like our state to promote non-polluting forms of aquaculture, and robustly protect our citizens from the harm caused by weak regulation of aquaculture.