

Jayden Carpenter
Greene
LD 94

I am someone that struggles with insomnia and anxiety and yes I was extremely effected from knee pain after multiple surgeries. I was trialed on many different medications for sleeping issues and anxiety and could not tolerate the side effects. I am able to work full time and go to college with the use of cannibus for the above reason. Please do not remove the medical providers role or these medical conditions from the current law.