

My name is Brian Roy from Bowdoin

It is a privilege to share with you my thoughts on LD 51. "An act to restore the religious and philosophical exemptions to immunization requirements."

Throughout human history, and every so often, the apparatus of evil seems to gain traction on the face of the earth. The evil today is the same as the past. And as Winston Churchill noted, "the further you look back into history, the further ahead you will see. So, we know that God wins, and the judge is a fair one. And every time truth throws a rock in the pond, it sends tiny ripples, converging to waves. And the waves become bigger, and the waves can destroy. But this wave must be peaceful, and it must be in love.

So as for LD 51 I say this...it is impossible for man or governments to grant what is already ours. Likewise, it is also impossible that they can take what cannot be taken. Because no act of congress, and no stroke of a pen can extract one's compliance, and to make one choose sin.

Because conviction and faith are found deep in the heart. Ancient words can remind us to guard this above all. So, we all share some blame, and we all play a part. But please let us forgive, and let justice be done. Let us take off the mask, and let us no more pretend. Let us love one another, and let us all find some peace. Because we cannot move forward, if we're lost where we're at.

Sadly, the conviction of faith has perhaps gone out of favor, and there are just too many hearts that are empty today. Because if those hearts were full, and because if those hearts were truthful, they would make better choices, and they would stand for the truth. And

They would have also never mandated medical experiments to begin with...And further still, they would not use mass deception along the way.

And the willful ignorance can clearly be seen when countless, and respectable truth tellers have shouted and warned us from the start. likewise, it should be noted, that the CDC has spun deceptions of their own. Mass media has also complied, and big tech

I will not speculate on precisely what will be said about this atrocity, but I believe wholeheartedly that this genocide will be written about from the hands of patriots who have stared down the wickedness of this evil plan, all the while never blinking, and never giving up. The thugs that have foisted this agenda on the world have also done so in collaboration with legacy media, big tech, and the money manipulators who are desperately trying to steer their great reset agenda. To them I say also....your day is coming.

Because we will never bow to you, and we will never stop fighting. We will never give up hope, and we will never lose our heart. We will never stop exposing you, and we will cast out every serpent. We are taking this country back, and we will forever, and always be free.
