

Ella Blunt
Dresden
LD 51

To whom it may concern,

I am a graduating homeschool senior. I am writing today in support of restoring religious and philosophical exemptions. For the past three years I have faced severe discrimination and have not been allowed to access educational opportunities in my area. This has negatively impacted my education as well as my mental health. Restoring these exemptions would restore equal access to educational opportunities for ALL students.