I support LD 214 “An Act to Amend the Laws Regarding Zoning and Land Use Restrictions to Limit Certain Requirements to Municipalities with a Population of More than 10,000”.

Some of us like to live in a small-town on purpose. We support the concept of “home rule” via our small town “town council”. The concept of “one size fits all, is not palatable to those of us who dislike state government/big government intrusion as how we run our town. And when this intrusion is to fulfill an agenda, hands off our home rule!

Again, I support LD 214 “An Act to Amend the Laws Regarding Zoning and Land Use Restrictions to Limit Certain Requirements to Municipalities with a Population of More than 10,000”, and it ought to pass.
