

Sam Lebel
Gray
LD 226

A productive economy and healthy society needs quality, affordable housing as its foundation. We are facing a housing crisis for a variety of reasons - now is the time to leverage additional funds and resources to address this very real issue. Maine's development community is ready to get to work building new housing. Please support this bill which represents the ultimate investment in the people and economy of Maine.