

Lochlin Post van der Burg
Windham
LD 1215

As a student and a resident of Maine. I would like to see my generation and community flourish without the stain of flavored nicotine products in our schools and stores. If this bill does not get signed into law, my generation will be condemned to high cancer and drug overdose rates. It has been proven with cigarettes decades ago, and we should be prepared to save one of the most innovative and important generations in our society.