

bonnie sammons
Belgrade
LD 935

This bill has several problems. It appears that it makes communications among providers - midwife and other health care providers more difficult, results in more costs for patients, it would apply hospital protocols to home births unnecessarily. In addition the current law that was passed in 2016 seems to be working. This bill is not necessary and does not make improvements over the previous law.