This bill should not pass at all. Abortion is not a right. I'm a nurse who has taken care of many patients faced with the choice because of medical issues not birth control. I've watched them suffer with choices they have had to make because of life threatening complications. It's a horrific situation. Abortion is not a government issue it's an issue between people and their doctors not a government issue in anyway and certainly not in the last trimester unless a life threatening condition that is Dx by the doctors not the state government. You are killing an unborn child and that situation is not birth control issues. There are thousands of methods of birth control abortion is not one of them. ADOPTIONNIT ABORTION
