

Vera Bickford
Fairfield
LD 1619

As a tax paying citizen of Maine and a supporter of life, I object to this bill . The murder of a child/infant at any stage of development is in itself punishable. That we would even consider killing an infant up to its birth is an evil no one should be part of. If this is what the govenor believes is a good choice then God have mercy on her soul.