

Suzanne Roy
Auburn
LD 1619

I am prolife from conception to natural death. Science research has proven that a fetus born alive as early as 22 weeks gestation can survive and thrive with medical intervention. The Sun Journal newspaper recently published a detailed news article about such a baby born in Maine.

I am against LD 1619, which is in my opinion another way of condoning infanticide.