

Maureen Belanger
Windham
LD 1619

I understand that everyone's circumstances are different. I don't understand how late term abortions are less than murder. There are mitigating circumstances that may require it but these should be rare exceptions in order to save the life of the mother, for example. Please, let's not make Maine a place for people to come for their abortions. That's not who we are. Thank you.