

Jay Feyler
Union
LD 1664

Municipalities can no longer afford 30% of the cost of General Assistance with the current climate and massive housing issues we have in Maine.

I believe if the State wishes to broaden GA, which seems to be the pattern, the State should be paying the majority of the cost.