

Jessica Gray
Clifton
LD 771

Good morning! I would like to make known my opinion on the subject of withholding allow a woman to withdraw her consent to abort her baby. I believe all live is precious and the unborn is vulnerable and in need of our protection. If a mother has changed to mind and decides to allow her baby to have the right to live, she should have the right to withdraw her consent for an abortion at anytime. Thank you