

dan haiss
Pittston
LD 1614

Based on the lies that continue to deny science by pro abortion groups- many are coerced into non-thought. Part of that is to remove person hood from the unborn child growing in the womb. We cannot go and smash eagle eggs, time to mimic those harsh laws for the offspring of our own species. Allow women the same ability to view their young just as National Geographic affords the populace to view the womb's of various species. Support this bill. Support your conscience.