

Peter O'Connell
South Portland
LD 1340

No civilian needs to own high capacity guns or rapid fire modifications. They provide a danger to public safety and to public safety officers of the law. I am in favor of banning private citizens from owning either the guns or the modification devices.