

Robin Smith
HAMPDEN
LD 995

I agree with Rep. Tracey Quint and LD 995. Where "serious surgery " is recommended, (and certainly it is when taking the life of a child), a second opinion should always be considered and a very necessary one, to safeguard the life of the child and the emotional health of the mother. Insurance coverage for a second opinion should be a given, as in any serious surgery.