

Genevieve Levin
Buxton
LD 1914

I believe that plant medicines should all be decriminalized, and legal, and there is precedents in a number of other states at this time.
People should have autonomy over their own bodies and what they put in them