

John Paynter
Cumberland
LD 209

I support the use of this rail corridor for a rail-trail but the railroad use must be maintained as well. This line would make an ideal commuter light rail line to serve the northern suburbs of Portland. A rail link to Auburn would be a great convenience for residents and tourists alike. The lure of a bike path through these towns would be excellent also. Can we create a dual-use trail and rail line?