

Cameron Held
Westbrook
LD 209

This trail would be a boon, not just for recreational opportunities, but as a route for commuters as e-bikes open up the distances commuters are willing and able to traverse to work. I know personally I'd use this route several times a week and think the value to the communities along its length would be vast.