

Erin Dodge
Portland
LD 1964

Being able to take time off from work is such an enormous boon to working people, and a great equalizer for caregivers, women, disabled, chronically ill people in particular. The pandemic has shown us that our health and well-being depends so much on the health and well-being of everyone else, and being able to stay home when sick or caring for a sick loved one is so so vital. It is time to pass and FUND paid leave for all Maine workers!