

Susan Bernier
South Berwick
LD 1578

I am against the passage of this bill. The absurdity of this bill is that it takes the rural vote out all future Presidential elections. The big, populated cities will decide every Presidential election going forward. Mainers deserve the right for their votes to count by the Electoral College, established by our founding fathers for this very reason. NPV is unconstitutional.