

Sandra Harvey
Bangor
LD 1578

The electoral college is the only way the voice of less populated states can be heard among the mega-populated states. Unless you want California and New York dictating who is our president, defeat the push to go to popular vote instead of the electoral college.

I want the voice of Maine to matter. I request that you bite against National Popular Vote and keep the Electoral College intact.