

James Cleary
South Berwick
LD 1578

I urge against a move to enact the national popular vote for presidential elections in Maine. NPV goes directly against the electoral college process that our founding fathers envisioned, and worse yet, it doesn't change the overall electoral process, but instead goes around the normal process by just voluntarily throwing away the unique Maine electoral votes in favor of the votes of more populous states with large cities.