

Connie Petersen
Parsonsfield
LD 1578

As a citizen on Maine I do not believe the National Popular Vote is good for our state or our nation. The founding fathers knew we had to have checks and balances in the Constitution the is why the Electoral votes are so important. If we go to a system that only uses the common vote large metropolises will out vote the country man every time. I do not want big business running our nation.