

Lisa Diffell
Corinth
LD 1963

I am very much opposed to this legislation. It creates more problems than it solves. It confiscates private property, it costs way too much, it's saves rate payers next to nothing and it's ugly as sin. Our beautiful state is being ruined and scarred. Listen to Jim Lebreque and educate yourselves instead of being pushed around by special interests without one engineer in their organizations. No wonder why Maine has the reputation of being a cheap date!