

Michael Corlew
Hampden
LD 1978

I support efforts to limit time served, especially as an incentive to participate in vocational and educational programs.

I have worked with justice-impacted students at the college level and I have found them to be serious, thoughtful, and motivated students who take their learning seriously. These types of programs should be expanded.