

JULIE MCCARTHY
Bradford
LD 780

This bill would memorialize the right to an abortion in the Constitution of Maine. It would eliminate the ability for the Legislature to pass any law infringing on or restricting that right, further expanding abortion in Maine.

This extreme abortion proposal would make Maine one of the most expansive abortion states in the country, allowing abortion at literally any point in the pregnancy. The Life inside a mother has great value, and I strongly believe both lives have a right to Life.