

Zahra Reynolds
South Portland
LD 2091

I can't imagine a world in which my children continue to use single-use items for soaps, beverages, foods, cleaning products, etc. It just isn't necessary, and, as consumers, we are happy to take on the responsibility and/or risk associated with providing our own containers if it is the best option for our environment.