

Rachael Dobrowolski
Southwest Harbor
LD 2091

I am a Maine resident and am interested in actively supporting local small businesses and farms. I support legislation that would allow for innovative approaches to food packaging and transport to be utilized in the state, helping to reduce waste and single use plastics in particular, preventing them from entering our natural environments, water supplies, and landfills. Adopting reusable packaging will not only be effective in reducing packaging waste, but will also be safe given smartly implemented safety measures for storage, sanitation, and circulation.