

Deborah McLean
Freeport
LD 780

Friends, whether I get pregnant, stay pregnant or choose not to be pregnant is no one's business but mine. If people don't believe in abortion, they shouldn't have one. I can not imagine a more personal decision than terminating a pregnancy. Allowing women to control their own lives, and insuring that they can do it safely , remains an important step in equality.