

James Cleary
South Berwick
LD 1517

LD 1517 - Ought not to pass

The benefactors for this proposal are convicted criminals. These people knew the law at the time they broke the law and were caught. These people should not be rewarded for their criminal conviction.

This also does not take into consideration that there may have been more serious charges against these people that were subsequently pleaded down to drug charges.

Taxpayer money should not be used in this way.