

Steven Eagles
Dresden
LD 646

I am a former teacher and building contractor and I write in support of funding for LD 1817 and LD142. Both these bills address the long standing problem of education for our students who are not academically inclined. Both of these bills will act as apprenticeship programs for those who learn by doing. They are inexpensive, widely supported, and our youth need these programs.