

Lisa Diffell
Corinth
LD 2205

I support feasibility studies to be conducted before any transmission lines are to be built . I am opposed to running any kind of power lines through privately owned land. Studies should be conducted to bury these lines along already established corridors, such as highways and currently used power line corridors.