

Sally Tabor
Kennebunk
LD 2007

Passing LD 2007 is a matter of fairness and equity. The Wabanaki Nations should have the same access to federal policies of self determination as other Native American Tribes. This is particularly important for children. Childhood Poverty within the Wabanaki Nations ranges from 40-77%. And childhood hood poverty has long term detrimental effects on the individuals who experience it.