

Alessandra Bosco
Portland
LD 2007

I write in support of passing LD 2007. Self-determination for Wabanaki Nations is long overdue and will enable Maine's tribes to thrive. They are currently limited by the restrictions of the Settlement Act, and their people are experiencing negative outcomes in health, economic success, and education as a result. Mainers must work together to address these issues, and LD 2007 is the appropriate next step.