

Christina Camacho
Searsport
LD 2007

This bill is important for basic fairness to Maine's Federally recognized tribes and bands. These tribes and bands should be treated in Maine in the same way as Federally recognized tribes and bands are treated in other states.

(This is a copy of the testimony that my husband, David Grinstein, has submitted. We developed these ideas together.)