

Anne Ferrara
Brooksville
LD 2007

The harm done to our Wabanaki sisters and brothers in the past is incalculable. It is a moral imperative that we grant them their rights as a sovereign nation. The past cannot be undone, but the injustices harming the Wabanaki cannot continue. The state of Maine cannot deprive these persons of all the federal rights granted to every other tribe in our nation. Justice must prevail.