

Lars Governo
South Portland
LD 40

I moved from New Hampshire to Maine over 3 years ago to pursue a career in adult use cannabis cultivation and have been very disappointed with the state of the industry in terms of the legal requirements for several aspects of the industry and the taxes and fees that are placed on small businesses by the state. I have hope for a thriving cannabis industry in the future of Maine but in order to achieve that we must seriously reevaluate the legal representation of the industry.